

Fuel attendant determined to complete degree

Meet James Timbi of Mul district in Western Highlands province. Timbi is a fuel attendant at the Puma Energy service station located at Konedobu, Port Moresby.

He has been doing this job for the last three months in a bid to save funds to continue his second year of bachelor in Business Management at the IBS University.

Last year, James paid K18,000 from the funds he saved for the past three years with help from relatives.

He is now working to have enough funds to register.

“I chose to be educated.

“My parents are subsistence farmers...I need to be different.

“I believe in the power of knowledge and education is the path I’m taking,” Timbi told the Post-Courier.

Timbi completed his grade 12 in 2019 at Kwip Dau secondary in the Mul district.

Meet James Timbi of Mul district in Western Highlands province. Timbi is a fuel attendant at the Puma Energy service station located at Konedobu, Port Moresby.

He has been doing this job for the last three months in a bid to save funds to continue his second year of bachelor in Business Management at the IBS University.

Last year, James paid K18,000 from the funds he saved for the past three years with help from relatives.

He is now working to have enough funds to register.

“I chose to be educated.

“My parents are subsistence farmers...I need to be different.

“I believe in the power of knowledge and education is the path I’m taking,” Timbi told the Post-Courier.

Timbi completed his grade 12 in 2019 at Kwip Dau secondary in the Mul district.